Bob is not upset but also not happy to get a notification on his phone
Bob Nuetral
Bob Nuetral
Bob might find the presentation of options overwhelming or confusing
Bob Angry
Bob presses the snooze button, sees he has more time to take his meds and can relax
Bob Happy
The snooze timer expires and the alarm goes off again
Bob Nuetral
Bob presses snooze again, happy that the alarm finally shut off
Bob Happy
Bob is angry he is getting a call from Sally about his missed medication
Bob Angry
Here Bob has 2 options, to take his meds and interact accordingly, or snooze
The flow could go back to here, Bob getting frustrated at the options or the fact his alarm is going off again
Bob looks at the alarm on his phone and sees that it's the alarm for his medication, Bob is still nuetral
Bob Angry
Bob Happy
Bob takes his meds and the alarm shuts off, Bob is feels accomplished and can relax
